Celebrated Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Morton Riggs celebrated their 11th wedding anniversary on Monday evening in an enjoyable manner. This celebration was in the form of a dinner. The attractive dinner table was artistically decorated in red and green, the former color being a favorite with the hostess. Among Mr. and Mrs. J. Morton Riggs' guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, Mr. Frank Thompson, Mr. Charles D. Wright and Mr. Humphreys.

Cornwell-Mitchell Nuptials.

Dr. Mitchell and Mrs. Josephine Cornwell were quietly married at the German Lutheran Church last Friday at high noon. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Lucas, who is a sister of the Doctor. Late in the afternoon the couple motored to Haleiwa, where the honeymoon is being spent.

Tea at Country Club.

Miss Ferrier, who is visiting Miss Vera Damon, was the motif for a tea which was given Tuesday at the Country Club by Miss Harriet Young. Tea was served on the lanai overlooking the sea. The small tables were decorated with roses and maidenhair fern. Among the guests were Miss Ferrier, Miss Vera Damon, Miss Spalding, Mrs. George Cleveland Bowen, Miss Wickstrom, and others.

Lieut. Kilgore's Dinner.

Lieut. Kilgore of the U. S. Marine Corps made a delightful host when he entertained at dinner Friday evening at the Seaside Hotel. The table was massed with purple violets and maidenhair fern. Among those who partook of Lieut. Kilgore's hospitality were Captain and Mrs. Frederick Ramsey, Miss Vera Damon, Lieut. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. Park, and others.

Surfing Party.

Lieut. Kilgore and Mr. Park of Boise, Idaho, made delightful hosts at a surfing party which was given at the Moana Hotel. After participation in this delightful sport delicious refreshments were served under a tree at the Moana. Among those present were Lieut. and Mrs. Smith, Captain and Mrs. Ramsey, Miss Vera Damon, and others.

Mrs. H. S. Atong of Honolulu, who came to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Admiral Whiting and Mrs. Whiting, who have made their home in Berkeley since the retirement of Admiral Whiting has taken a house on Pacific avenue. The Atongs are one of the first families of Hawaii, and their history reads like a romance of the South Seas. The founder of the family was a Chinese merchant of considerable scholarship, while Mrs. Atong, in her belle days was one of the beauties of the island. All of the girls married splendidly, and a few years ago their home was one of continual hospitality, a fact pleasantly remembered by many Californians who have visited there.—S. F. Chronicle.

Miss Nina Jones, a picture of whom appears today, will probably spend as much of the next season in San Francisco as she did last winter. She has just returned from a visit to Portland to her home in Santa Barbara, and has planned a number of pretty affairs for the San Francisco girls spending the summer there. She is a very attractive girl, and a great favorite in San Francisco society. Miss Jones spent last summer in Honolulu.

Dr. and Mrs. Wall's Chowder.

Dr. and Mrs. Ormond Wall were host and hostess at a chowder which was given Thursday evening at the Outrigger Club. The affair was an enjoyable one. About forty guests were present. The chowder was served shortly after seven o'clock and the attractive club house was appropriately decorated for the occasion.

The Misses Robertson Entertain.

The Misses Robertson entertained informally at bridge Tuesday afternoon. The tables were arranged on the large lanai surrounding the Robertson's home on Hingham street. The guests present were Miss Lillian Robertson, Miss Grace Robertson, Miss Lydia McStocker, Miss N. Center, Miss Ada Rhodes, Miss Beatrice Campbell, Mrs. James Dougherty and Mrs. Frederick Damon.

Mrs. Wood's Bridge Party.

Monday Mrs. C. B. Wood entertained at bridge at her home on Thurston avenue. The house was decorated throughout with Duchess roses. Shortly before five o'clock delicious refreshments were served. Among the guests were Princess Kawanakoa, Mrs. Clifford Kimball, Mrs. Arthur Davidson, Mrs. Frederick Damon, Miss Ada Rhodes, Mrs. James Dougherty, Mrs. Arthur Matix, Mrs. Frank Richardson, and others.

Consul and Mrs. R. Forster's Picnic.

Consul and Mrs. Ralph Forster have issued invitations for a picnic which will be given tomorrow at Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper's mountain home on Mt. Tantalus. A number of the guests will ride on horseback (as motoring is prohibited), and the remainder of the party will drive up the mountain side, arriving in time for luncheon, which will be served picnic fashion underneath the trees.

Miss Mary Low's Dinner.

Miss Mary Low entertained at dinner Tuesday evening at the McDougal in honor of the Princess Kawanakoa. Red carnations made a pretty and effective decoration. Among those present were the Princess Kawanakoa, Miss Mary Low, Miss Maud Wood, Mr. Robert Hare, Mr. Wale and Mr. Jamison.

Miss Creighton's Tea.

Miss Creighton entertained at tea Friday afternoon, most of the guests being young girls of the younger set. About forty young people were present and the hours were from 4 to 6.

Mrs. Ashford's Tea.

Mrs. C. W. Ashford entertained at tea Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Mary Gunn and Mrs. Melville Wakefield. This was one of the most enjoyable functions of the week. The hours were from 4 to 6. This entertainment was in the nature of a farewell as Mrs. Gunn leaves Sunday on the Korea. She will reside in New York and will be gone from the islands for a year, much to the regret of her numerous friends. Mrs. Ashford, Mrs. Wakefield and Mrs. Gunn received in the drawing room of the Ashford home on Beretania avenue. The drawing room was converted into a floral bower, by means of the gold-enshower. Mrs. Gardner Wilder, Miss McIntyre and Miss Ashford, a daughter of the house, assisted in the entertainment of the guests. Refreshments were served in the diningroom and on the lanai at small tables that were decorated with pink carnations and maidenhair fern. The lanais were enclosed with American and Hawaiian flags. On this occasion numerous pretty gowns were worn, and the guests looked extremely well in their dainty summer frocks and picture hats. This entertainment was to have been a garden party but owing to the inclement weather this was abandoned.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Martyn Haenke, prominent society folk, are sojourning at the Moana hotel. The following is a clipping from the San Francisco Call:

Miss Marie Churchill became the bride of J. Martyn Haenke at one of the prettiest weddings of the week celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Churchill, in San Mateo. The house was decorated with pink roses and the effective color scheme was introduced in the gowns worn by the girls of the bridal party. The bride is an unusually attractive girl of the brunette type, and her gown of white satin and lace was extremely effective. She wore the conventional satin embellished with lace and embroidered chiffon and the gown was finished with a court train. The bride's hair was caught in the bride's hair with a wreath of orange blossoms. The maid of honor was Miss Angela Coyle, and her gown was white tulle, delicately embroidered and draped over satin. There were two bridesmaids, Miss Grace Bromfield and Miss Neva Salisbury, both of whom wore gowns of pink markiseite and carried roses. Billy Gray acted as best man. The bride had been feted before her wedding at several of the recent affairs in town and in Burlingame. Haenke is a member of the Burlingame country club and was host at one of the largest of the recent dinners given at the club for the members of the bridal party. Miss Coyle entertained at a recent luncheon given at the Palace for the bride and for weeks before the wedding the girls of the bridal party had a gay round of teas and dinners. They are going east on their honeymoon and are probably going abroad. They expect to travel during the summer and will return to reside at San Mateo.

Princess to Stay Longer. The numerous friends of the Princess Kawanakoa are rejoicing over her decision to remain in the islands until the latter part of August, instead of sailing on the Sierra on the 10th of this month. The Princess has been the motif for much entertainment since her arrival; in fact she has been entertained morning, noon and evening by her legion of friends. The largest entertainment of this week was given in her honor by Col. Sam Parker at his home at Waikiki. This was in the nature of a luau, and over 250 people were present. Immediately after dinner at the University Club, the Princess with seven others motored to the luau. The picture of the Princess which appears in this issue was taken in New York; although it is beautiful it does not do her justice.

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.) HONOLULU, T. H., AUG. 5.

Governor Frear, Honolulu, T. H. Wharf proposition not discussed. Winslow public meeting. Hold license until Hilo business interests have a hearing. Public meeting will be called August 6.

RICHARDS, President, Hilo Board of Trade. The above is the text of a wireless message sent by E. E. Richards to the Governor. It shows in a very concise manner just what is the present attitude of the community here on the wharf proposition.

As a matter of fact, L. A. Thurston has since he returned to Hilo in the Mauna Kea last Wednesday, been very successful in securing signatures to a petition for the wharf, similar in text to the one which was circulated in Honolulu. This view is quite common that if the firms which ship the bulk of the freight are satisfied, the proposition must be alright. There are on the other hand many who want to be shown, and it is for their benefit that a public meeting has been called which will take place at Firemen's Hall Saturday afternoon.

The statement made by the Governor and the superintendent of public works to the effect that the entire matter was "aired in Hilo and fully discussed" at the time of the meeting called by Major Winslow to discuss harbor lines, is regarded as a jargon test, to use a mild term. The only account thereof published at the time by the Bulletin, that a wharf might be built by the railroad company, but it was not "fully discussed" by any means, and for the very reason that the subject was introduced on its face as a side issue, and a discussion thereof, beyond the brief remarks by Thurston, would have been entirely foreign to the matter under consideration at the time.

It is certain that not one word was said about the terms of the license, and these were absolute news to the general public of this city until news was received of the meeting held in Honolulu. It is thought quite possible that the subject of the wharf was introduced at the Winslow meeting in order that it might later on be said that the public of Hilo had been notified. If this is the case it appears to many here to have been a very adroit manner, though the reason why the superintendent of public works should be gum-shoeing here for the benefit of private interests does not as yet appear quite plain.

LAST WEEK of our

Reorganization Sale

During this week our great sale proved so successful that we have decided to continue it for another week. The householders of Honolulu took advantage of our generous offer in allowing them goods at reductions varying from 20% to 50% off ordinary rates, and as we still have a number of bargains left in all lines, we would advise those who will be in need of household furniture within the next few months to avail themselves of this opportunity.

As far as can be judged at present point on which there is criticism is there will be no very great opposition, based on the usual stunt of the ad- ministrators to work its schemes through without taking the public into its confidence, and the statement by the officials that Hilo had been fully informed about the matter is regarded not to be Rooseveltian, as a huge joke.

Barley and Hops--- a food and a tonic. A trifle of alcohol---an aid to digestion. THAT'S BEER. If you get a pure beer, well aged, nothing is better for you.

It is not good advice to say "Don't drink beer." There are many who need it.

Your doctor advises beer. The healthiest peoples of the world drink the most of it.

But it is good advice to say "Don't drink the wrong beer." Some beer causes biliousness. Primo does not.

Primo is both good and good for you. Nine people in ten would be better for drinking it.

Primo is the home beer, because of its purity. It is properly aged, filtered and sterilized.
